Business opportunities in the city of Medellín -
Colombia: Why Medellín?

The Agency of Cooperation and Investment of Medellín (ACI) with the support of PROCOLOMBIA, the Colombian agency in charge of promoting FDI, exports and tourism, wish to invite you to a presentation on the different opportunities and possibilities that the city of Medellín (Colombia) offers to foreign investment.

Nowadays, Medellín is recognized in the world for its social and urban transformation and its capacity to offer innovative solutions to its problems and challenges. Medellín has another skin and offers a renovated and dynamic economy that engenders reliability, making it an attractive destination for foreign investors.

Allow us to introduce you all the strategies and components that make our city a reference of social transformation and the perfect destination for business and investments in Latin America.

This event aims to present business opportunities to private companies within the service, manufacturing industry and infrastructure and to showcase the innovation experiences of the city of Medellín.
